

A Church for you

The Salvation Army corps (churches) are places of Christian worship. Lively worship services are conducted every Sunday and are open to the public. Each corps also provides programs and activities aimed at supporting and assisting people in their local community.

There are many social groups and activities for men, women, children and teenagers, including groups for parents and toddlers, youth groups, and groups for senior citizens.

Youth Support

Beacon Youth Services is a ministry of Townsville Faithworks. The service runs a weekly 'drop-in' centre. A Breakfast Club and Life Skills program are also run from one of the local High Schools and a counselling service is now available. For youth with schooling problems, qualified teachers also provide one-on-one mentoring/tutoring. Teenagers about to leave school can also get help with writing resumes, interview skills and grooming hints.
