Gospel Chatterbox

Aim:   To point children towards reading the message of the Gospel in a fun way.

What: The Gospel chatterbox, just like any regular chatterbox, is a fun way to reinforce concepts as well as engage learners in a visual manner, getting them excited about what their outcome may be. In this case, the chatterbox points the participant towards reading a particular Bible verse. Once this verse has been read, make a point of it to talk about it in further depth depending on the age of the group you're teaching.

Who: Ideal for children's ministries or small group youth meetings.

Resource: A4 paper, pen, scissors.
