

PRINCIPAL 1

Don't preach on money only when you need it

Exercises:

1. Write down the number of times that you have preached on money in the past 2-3 years. What were the results?
2. Write down what you want FOR you people when it comes to their finances.
3. List 5 ways that you communicate with your people (preaching, email, personal conversations, newsletter, etc.). Which two communication methods would you feel most comfortable using to communication what you want FOR your people when it comes to their finances?
