OUR SPECIAL GUESTS

Major San Holland

San is the Corps Officer at Rouse Hill in Sydney's northwest and is a dynamic speaker who has a passion to see people saved and discipled. She is a leader who believes The Salvation Army was born of the Holy Spirit and must continue in His transforming power.

San shares in ministry with her husband, Topher, who is the Divisional Mission Team leader in our division. They have been officers for 27 years, during which time they have been involved in corps leadership and divisional youth work, with Godly energy. They have three adult children, Giselle, Rowan, and Liam along with grandchildren. San will bring ministry to the weekend with wisdom gleaned from her life as a minister, wife, mother and grandmother.

Captain Rebecca Inglis

Rebecca is the Corps Officer of Wollongong Corps in the Sydney East and Illawarra Division. Together with her husband, Phil, she brings energy and passion to the role of leading and pastoring this significant Salvation Army church. Rebecca and Phil were responsible for all youth and children's ministries in our Division for four years and have been officers for 13 years.

They have three high school children – Bradley, and twin girls, Chloe and Emily, they enjoy time together as a family and have recently toured the US and Canada with Rebecca's parents.

Rebecca tries to live by the principle of not allowing negativity to take up space in her mind and life. You will enjoy the sincerity and clarity which Rebecca brings to WOW this year.

WOMEN OF WORTH

The Weekend

23-25 October at the Collaroy Centre, Homestead Ave, Collaroy.

Our women's weekend away commences 6pm Friday (registrations) and concludes on Sunday after lunch.

Our first meal together is supper following the session on Friday night (dinner is an optional extra).

Saturday afternoon elective options include:

- Shopping trip to Warringah Mall (a bus will leave after lunch)
- 'Living in the Light' with Major Bev McMurray
- 'Salt and Light' lightbox craft ($10) with Captain Belinda Atherton-Northcott
- Collaroy beach walk with Major Nicole Viles

Saturday night is opportunity to have fun and come dressed black and white - be as creative as you like.

This is a great weekend for women of all ages to share in a time of friendship, laughter and christian teaching which will leave you feeling re-energised and refuelled for the journey!

"You are the salt
of the earth...
...You are the light of the world."
Matt. 5:13-16
