

VOLUNTEER MUSIC PRODUCER WANTED!

Located in Surry Hills, Oasis Youth Support Network is The Salvation Army's response to youth homelessness in Sydney's inner city.

We are looking for an engaging volunteer who can facilitate music production in our studio one afternoon each week for our young people as part of the StreetMedia Program. StreetMedia is our creative arts, training and development program that provides young people with a fun, creative outlet for self-expression through a variety of mediums such as music, art, film, radio, photography and theatre. We do ask for a minimum of two to three months commitment from volunteers, however days and times are flexible to fit around their schedule.

Please get in touch with us if you:

- Have skills and knowledge with multiple instruments (preferably guitar, keyboard/piano, drums, bass and synth)
- Have experience teaching instruments to beginner and intermediate level learners
- Have an understanding of recording music and of music creation and editing software (such as Logic or Protools)
- Are flexible and have the ability to be creative in new situations
- Have an interest in working with vulnerable young people
- Are over 21 years of age

All volunteers must pass an interview and complete a Working with Children Check before commencing. If you require any further information or wish to apply for this opportunity, please contact:
