Update on Kitchen renovations:

The walls are all tiled to the ceiling with lovely white tiles.. As of yesterday (Saturday) , I believe the flooring should be finished and lino laid in the kitchen and pantry areas... This coming week will see the start of the stoves and sinks etc. starting to be installed.... There is still no completion dates so hang on Home Leaguers it shouldn't be too long....

I have arranged for a lady from Rouse Hill Corps who is a professional chef to voluntarily come and show us how to use the new equipment properly once completed.

We will have a demonstration on how to use the new cooking facilities and the washing up machine and the "convection microwave ovens".

It will be beneficial to all the team leaders, who will be responsible for those using this equipment if they can attend this time, as we want to be able to use this equipment safely and correctly to gain the most benefit.

Further updates as it happens with our new "Kitchen". jc
